

PROGRAM

Moderator: Helena Mattsson, Phd, architect, the Royal Institute of Technology

WELCOME

Bitte Nygren, director of the Swedish Museum of Architecture

MEETING BETWEEN CITIES

David d'Heilly, curator, Tokyo Style in Stockholm

EVOLUTION OF THE CITY FROM 1960:s TO THE PRESENT DAY

Dr Keimi Harada, mayor of Minato-Ku, Tokyo

SLOW AND INSTANT - MAPPING OF URBAN LIFESTYLES

Fumikasu Masuda, professor at Tokyo Zokei University, with students

EVOLUTION OF THE CITY FOR 100 YEARS

Mats Pemer, director of Urban Planning, City Planning Administration, Stockholm

THE STRUCTURE OF PUBLIC SPACE AND EVERY DAY LIFE

Lars Marcus, architect, the Royal Institute of Technology

DEUTSCHLANDSCAPE: EPICENTRES AT THE PERIPHERY

Francesca Ferguson, founder of Urban drift in Berlin and commissioner of the German pavilion at the Architecture Biennial in Venice

URBAN FORM: IDENTITY AND PUBLIC LIFE

Elisabeth Lilja, Urban sociologist, Dept. of Human Geography, Stockholm University

IDENTIFYING TRADITIONAL ARCHITECTURE IN TOKYO

Tele Design

THE POSSIBILITY OF STOCKHOLM

From a separated to a connected city, working with the spaces in-between as a starting point

Ola Andersson, architect, the Royal Institute of Technology and Jan Åhman, director at Färgfabriken, with students

8X8: AN ALTERNATIVE STOCKHOLM

Anders Wilhelmson, architect and professor at The Royal University Collage of Fine Arts and Andreas Lönnroth, architect, with students

EVERYTHING CAN BE DONE?

Experiences of working as architects in Tokyo

Klein Dytham Architects KDA, Mark Dytham and Astrid Klein

FIND MYSELF A CITY TO LIVE IN

Panel discussion with various participants, architects, city planners, politicians

Welcome!

Final program to be found on:

www.arkitekturmuseet.se and www.tokyostyle.se